Summer Services 2022—July 10

8:00 a.m.

We wish to remind you that masking remains mandatory at all times throughout all of our buildings during services. Please show your care for others by keeping a distance of 2 metres between you/your residential cohort and others at all times. We ask that all who attend in-person services and are vaccine eligible to be fully vaccinated.

Summer Lite Prayer Service—July 10, 2022

The Proclamation of the Word

Psalm 25:1-10

To you, O God, I lift up my soul; my God, I put my trust in you;
let me not be humiliated, nor let my enemies triumph over me.

Let none who look to you be put to shame;
let the treacherous be disappointed in their schemes.

Show me your ways, O God, and teach me your paths.
Lead me in your truth and teach me,
for you are the God of my salvation
in whom I have trusted all the day long.

Remember, O God, your compassion and love,
for they are from everlasting.
Remember not the sins of my youth and my transgressions;
remember me according to your love
and for the sake of your goodness, O God.

Gracious and upright is our God, instructing sinners in the way,
guiding the humble in doing what is right,
and teaching that way to the lowly.

All the paths of our God are love and faithfulness to those who keep God's covenant and God's testimonies.

A Reading from the Gospel of Luke 10:25-37

Prior to the reading:

God be with you.

And also with you.

The Good News of Jesus Christ according to Luke.

Glory to you, Lord Jesus Christ.

A lawyer stood up to test Jesus. "Teacher," he said, "what must I do to inherit eternal life?" Jesus said to him, "What is written in the law? What do you read there?" He answered, "You shall love your God with all your heart, and with all your soul, and with all your strength, and with all your mind; and your neighbour as yourself." Jesus said to him, "You have given the right answer; do this, and you will live." But wanting to justify himself, he asked Jesus, "And who is my neighbour?"

Jesus replied, "A man was going down from Jerusalem to Jericho, and fell into the hands of robbers, who stripped him, beat him, and went away, leaving him half dead. Now by chance a priest was going down that road; and when he saw him, he passed by on the other side. So likewise a Levite, when he came to the place and saw him, passed by on the other side.

But a Samaritan while traveling came near him; and when he saw him, he was moved with pity. He went to him and bandaged his wounds, having poured oil and wine on them. Then he put him on his own animal, brought him to an inn, and took care of him. The next day he took out two denarii, gave them to the innkeeper, and said, 'Take care of him; and when I come back, I will repay you whatever more you spend.'

"Which of these three, do you think, was a neighbour to the man who fell into the hands of the robbers?" He said, "The one who showed him mercy." Jesus said to him, "Go and do likewise."

Following the reading:

The Gospel of Christ.

Praise to you, Lord Jesus Christ.

We encourage parishioners to use pre-authorized donation or online donation (or PayPal). For parishioners who use an envelope for their offering, you may leave it on the plate at the back of the Church.

Blue Envelopes in July go to Outreach Beyond, outreach to areas beyond our own community, such as assisting with projects in Africa.

Blue Envelopes in August go to Community Outreach Projects—Reaching out to the community with projects designed to meet local needs.
